HERNING - SHORT, SWEET AND FACTUAL

- “Where the sky is the limit” is the motto of Herning. The city is known as a trade fair, culture and sports event city. It is also a business friendly university city, focusing mainly on manufacturing industry.

- Herning is a young city and just 170 years ago it had a population of no more than 21 people. By 1913, the population grew to 6,000 and Herning received the status of borough making it one of the youngest in Denmark. Herning city now has 49.229 citizens, while Herning Municipality has 88.386 inhabitants.

- Herning is the number one exhibition city in northern Europe. Every year a large range of trade fairs are held at MCH Messecenter Herning. These are, for instance, Agromek, Denmark’s largest agricultural trade fair, Foodexpo, the biggest retail, hotel, restaurant and food fair in Scandinavia, Formland, the biggest interior, design and home accessories fair in Scandinavia and many more.

- Herning has also created a tradition of hosting large-scaled sport events. In 2012 two stages of the Giro d’Italia took place here, and the city has been host to i.e. the European Under-21 Football Championship, World Women’s Handball Championship and European Championships in cycling, men’s handball, table tennis, swimming, triathlon, volleyball and badminton.

- In addition to trade fairs, concerts and events the city is focusing its strength on business tourism.

- Herning is home to some of the leading sports teams in Denmark, including the football team FC Midtjylland, the ice hockey team Herning Blue Fox and the handball team HC Midtjylland.
